The following are instructions and tips to access and complete the training. You may wish to cut and paste relevant portions of this information to include in the notification you send to your employees.

- You need to complete the State Ethics Commission's new conflict of interest law online training program by April 5, 2013. There are now two online training programs: one for municipal employees to complete; and a separate program for state and county employees to complete. You will need to click the link for the municipal employee program: MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEE ONLINE TRAINING PROGRAM.
- The training programs can be completed on any work, home or publicly available computer with internet access.
- If you access the online program using the above link or through the Ethics Commission's website, you will have to print out a completion certificate as evidence that you have complied with the online training requirement. It is necessary that you provide a copy to the Town Clerk as verification of your completion of this training.
- The programs were designed to work with the Internet Explorer web browser. While the programs will work with other browsers, such as Firefox, Safari or Google Chrome, some features may not work or display correctly.
- The programs are optimized to run on Internet Explorer at 100% view. To adjust your view settings, go to the toolbar at the upper left-hand side of the browser page, select "View" and then select "Zoom" from the drop-down menu and select 100%.

- Pop-up blockers should be disabled. Follow the instructions at the beginning of the program to disable pop-up blockers on your computer.
- The programs include audio and video components. If headphones are available to you, you may wish to wear them while completing the training to minimize office noise and distraction.
- The “Options” and “Help” menus appear on every page throughout the training and provide access to helpful resources, such as accessibility information, the programs’ scripts and a glossary of terms. They are located near the top right of the online training program screen.
- If the video does not play on your computer, please verify that you have the Adobe Flash Player plug-in (version 10 or higher) downloaded to your computer. Please refer to the System Requirements document by clicking the “Help” menu tab, then clicking “System Requirements” located near the top right of the online training program screen.

If you have to restart the program, use the table of contents on the left-hand column of the page and click on the “Lesson” to return to your place.
- If you have difficulty following the audio portions of the program, you can click the “Script” menu tab, located next to the “Contents” menu tab, on the left column of the program screen. In addition, you may view and print the entire course script by clicking the “Options” menu tab and then clicking “View Script.”
